IFC Spotlight

Ramteen Rafii is a member of FIJI and the treasurer for IFC. He is a senior this year at Chapman and loves his research he conducts on hagfish. In his spare time he enjoys going to his job at Glidewell Dental and looks forward to his future at dental school. Thanks for all of your hard work Ramteen.

Fall Happenings

The Greeks at Chapman have been all over this fall. Here are a sampling of whats been going on:

The ladies of Alpha Gam get initiated into the Order of Omega, the Chapman Greek specific academic honor society.

The Iota Class of Phi Delta has a pumpkin carving with their pledge moms as a way to get into the Halloween spirit.

Tellis, from DG, enjoys the ropes course retreat the Delta Gamma wen on earlier in the semester.

Greek Week

Delta Tau and Gamma Phi celebrate having come in first place in Chant this year. This is the second year in a row Delta Tau Delta has won Greek Week Overall.

The ladies of Alpha Phi have fun at Greek Week, in their group picture.

The ladies of Theta prepare their Greek Week signs to cheer them and AEP on during the weeks games.

Airbands

Alpha Gam and the Black Student Union take a picture to commemorate their partnership and their theme of Bring it On.

Beta and Alpha Phi celebrate a successful Airbands performance, with their theme of LA vs NYC.

The ladies of Gamma Phi table for Airbands and to raise awareness of their excellent philanthropy charity, Girls on the Run.

Airbands

The Phi Delt Chapter celebrates a great time with Kappa and all the fun they had.

PIKE rejoices with a Delta Gam on their amazing time at Airbands and their theme of Mr and Mrs Smith.

Theta joins the men of FIJI in their excellent Fire and Ice costumes for this years Airbands.

The Tri Delts and Phi Kappa Tau celebrate their performance and theme of Old School vs New School.
